

Neil Crosby, Director of Sales – Warner Pacific Insurance Services

Course Title: The Options of a Single Payer System in California

Course: 363714 Credit: One Hour

Presentation Summary:

A brief summary of where the ACA stands today and why the concept of Single Payer is rising. This will be followed by a brief overview of how other country's Universal Healthcare & Single Payer systems work. The conclusion will include statistics of Canada's system, and why it won't happen here in the US and in California.

Biography:

Neil Crosby is Director of Sales for Warner Pacific Insurance Services, one of California's top Employee Benefit General Agencies. Neil has been in the health insurance industry since 1982 and is a well-respected authority and speaker on health care reform and health care legislation issues facing California and America. Neil is a Past President of CAHU, the California Association of Health Underwriters, and serves on the Media Relations Committee for NAHU, the National Association of Health Underwriters, which is the industry organization of professionals in the Employee Benefits industry.